

Please join the Centre for International Security Studies and the Alumni Relations Office for the Third Annual Michael Hintze Lecture in International Security

India's Search for Energy Security delivered by

Dr Ligia Noronha

The Energy and Resources Institute (New Delhi)

Dr Noronha will discuss how India's growing energy needs are shaping its foreign, security and trade policies. Addressing issues such as the Non-Proliferation Treaty, the uranium trade and the environment, she will explore the consequences of a rising India for Australia and the world.

Wednesday, 27 May, 5:45 for 6pm
MacLaurin Hall, The University of Sydney

Reception following

RSVP by 20 May is essential – ciss@econ.usyd.edu.au or (02) 9036 9252

The University of Sydney
Faculty of Economics and Business

The University of Sydney
Alumni

